

WORKPLACE PENSION GOVERNANCE & ENGAGEMENT

Your workplace pension scheme.

Your workers' futures.

Your responsibility.

Our governance, your peace of mind.

So, you have your workplace pension arrangement and are enrolling your workers into it. Job done, right?

The Pensions Regulator is increasing its attention on the management (governance) of workplace pensions and eventual outcomes for employees and their retirement.

There's a huge range of options and choice - make sure that you are doing your bit to oversee your employees' future.

- ▶ How do you know if your pension scheme or remains right for your workers?
- ▶ Is your pension provider performing? Will it be around in the longer-term?
- ▶ Do your workers appreciate what they are paying for and are they getting value from it?

It is important to keep your pension scheme under regular review to ensure that it remains appropriate and compliant, and that your workers engage with it and get the most from their savings.

This is where we come in.

Whatever your arrangement, your size or your industry we can help. From off-the-peg remote reporting to regular tailored reporting and worker engagement, our governance and engagement solutions suit all palettes.

- Regular reporting
- Remote or face-to-face meetings
- Provider monitoring
- Legislative updates & news
- Newsletters, seminars, helplines & guidance for your workers

Our ongoing governance and engagement services do all this, and more.

We believe in simplicity. Pension provision shouldn't be complicated. Pension scheme management needn't be complicated. Our governance and engagement support is clear, simple and jargon-free.

Welcome to simplicity.

The Pensions Regulator has put the ongoing governance and employee communication of workplace pension schemes at the heart of its good practice guidance.

How long will it remain voluntary?
